ELITE BUILDING

MARYSVILLE, October 24. — That leaving the country than are coming in. Hindoo laborers, he said, cannot get employment as easily now as formerly, and they are beginning to feel the effect of the low wages paid them. The Hindoos complained that the railroad companies, which were once the salvation of the Hindoo on his arrival in this country, are no longer anxious to employ betarbaned workers, and as a result the Hindoo is beginning to feel a longing for his old homeland.

AMUSEMENTS

Savoy Opens Tomorrow Night

SAVOY THEATRE OPENS TOMORROW

Postponed On Account of Unfinished Condition of Building.

Owing to the unfinished state of the new Savoy theatre manager Scully states that there will be no show there until tomorrow night when there will be one of the grandest theatrical openings this city has ever experienced. Mr. Scully expresses much disappointment at not being able to open his house of amusement on the date that has been generally given out, but also says that the class of talent that he will put on tomorrow night will fully make up for the delay of twenty-four hours. The people of the city will take very kindly to the new play house as it is built to suit the climate by being covered with a roof but the sides are left open thus assuring a pure air as well as an open air theatre. The manager says there will be no failure in the opening tomorrow night and, everybody come and have the time of their lives laughing at the funny stunts and other interesting features that are on the bill.

It doesn't make any difference which side of the street you take, you will find that your creditors also prefer that side.

GILLETTE WAS IN GOOD HUMOR

And His Play, "The Private Secretary," Is Full of Fast Comedy.

CAST:
Douglas Cattermole.....Robert McKim
Mrs. Stead.....Dorcas Matthews
Sydney Gibson.....Arthur Elton
Harry Marsland.....James B. Norton
Rev. Robert Spalding, Geo. B. Howard
Mr. Cattermole.....Guy Hittner
Miss Ashford.....Marion Dunn
Mr. Marsland.....Chas. E. Murphy
Edith Marsland.....Betty Jonson
Eva Webster.....Eva Martella
"The Private Secretary," the week-end offering presented for the first time here last night by the George B. Howard company, is a very funny comedy, and should keep up the reputation this company has brought to the Orpheum of furnishing entertainment for crowded houses. William Gillette was in a jocular mood when he wrote the play, and his spirit is reflected in every line. In spite of hot political battles and the rival attractions of the Japanese consul's big reception at the Young hotel, the Orpheum was well filled last night and those who went were given three acts of clean and clever comedy to repay them. George B. Howard, as Rev. Robert Spalding has a part well suited to him, though it

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL

Body of ex-Governor Will Lie in State Tomorrow—Interment Sunday.

Final arrangements for the funeral services and the burial of the remains of the late ex-Governor Cleghorn have been made, the services being held at St. Andrew's Cathedral at two o'clock Sunday afternoon as previously announced.

In the procession will be police, representatives of the military and naval services and of the local government including the Governor and his staff. The procession will form at two o'clock on the Waikeiki side of Emma street with its right resting near Vineyard. The line of march will be along Emma street to Vineyard, then Vineyard to Nuuanu and up the latter to the Royal Mausoleum grounds where the interment will be made.

Leading the procession to the place of interment will be a platoon of mounted police followed by the Royal Hawaiian Band, eight uniformed foot police, and then the six grandsons of the deceased and Reverend Canon Ault preceding the remains.

On the left side of the hearse will be pall bearers S. B. Dole, C. P. Iaukei, Rear Admiral Rees and Cecil Brown, and on the right A. S. Hartwell, T. Clive Davies, W. O. Smith and E. I. Spaulding.

Following the body will come the mourners, Ex-Governor Liliuokalani being the first, followed by Percy Cleghorn. The other mourners following in order will be J. W. Robertson and wife, J. H. Boyd and wife, Arthur Cleghorn and Frank Cleghorn.

Next in order will be Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith, the Governor's staff, the Delegate to Congress, United States District Judges, Justices of the Supreme Court, Speaker of the House, Colonel Schuyler and staff, members of the consular corps, Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu, and Master of Hawaiian Lodge.

Announcement has been made that from three until five o'clock tomorrow afternoon the body will lie in state on the large tablet of Alahua to give friends and acquaintances a chance to view it for the last time.

MAYOR WILL

NOT OPPOSE

Fort Street Paving Project Assured of No Veto From Fern.

Mayor Joseph J. Fern's attitude towards the scheme for the pavement of Fort street between the intersection of Queen and Beretania streets has undergone a material change according to a general understanding that now prevails about the corridors of the "city hall."

Mayor Fern has now come forward favoring the improvement of Honolulu's principal business street. He is declared to have given his word that he will not launch the mayoralty veto should an ordinance or resolution be introduced and passed by the Board calling for the paving of Fort street by the so-called Warren Brothers process as represented in the islands by Joseph J. Gilman.

It will be remembered that from the time the late paving ordinance was introduced before the Board by Chairman Quinn of the road committee, "His Honor" assisted by two or three members of the Board maintained a bitter fight against its passage.

That some satisfactory understanding has been reached in regard to the ultimate passage of a regulation authorizing the pavement of Fort street by the bitulphic process is borne out by the fact that a complete plan for the manufacture of the patented pavement is here and ready to be set up at very short notice.

Mr. Gilman is prepared to install the plant and have it in working order before the first of December. Should the contemplated paving resolution be introduced at a meeting of the Board, immediately following the election, the work of fulfilling the long deferred contract will be taken up and carried on to completion, the job not taking much over a month or six weeks at the latest.

Hats and shoes are intended to serve the ends of humanity.

We often wonder if the church organist has pipe dreams.  does not afford him the unlimited scope that some of his previous roles have done. He divides honors with Guy Hittner, who, as Mr. Cattermole, gets it over the footlights in a convincing way.

The remainder of the cast gives good support, and the feminine section, Miss Dorcas Matthews, Miss Marion Dunn, Miss Eva Martella and Miss Betty Jonson have several opportunities to score, of which they make the most.
